5. DHS Office of Bombing Prevention Training Opportunities

Patrick Shaw from DHS states that they are looking for agencies interested in hosting bombing prevention training. Classes focus on improvised explosive devices. Anyone who is interested is asked to contact Patrick Shaw at 216-525-6502.

6. Automatic License Plate Readers (ALPR)

The county is going to pay the maintenance fees for the ALPRs through December 31st, 2013 using residual grant funds. Ursula Kaunas will be putting out a comprehensive monthly update on the overall program shortly and she encouraged anyone that is not receiving the reports and would like to they should contact her at ukaunas@cuyahogacounty.us

7. Public Safety Grants Update

Paula Young and Larry Taffe – They expect a 5% reduction in funding due to sequester. It is expected that future grant monies go towards sustainment and not building capacity. Additionally grants will be competitive and based on a broad regional approach. The issue of regionalizing bomb squads was raised from the perspective of sustainment of the number of teams in the region.
