ORC 121.22(G)(5), a public body may hold an executive session to consider "[m]atters required to be kept confidential by federal law or regulations or state statutes."

ORC 121.22(G)(6) provides that consideration of "[d]etails relative to the security arrangements and emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office, if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be expected to jeopardize the security of the public body or a public office." Under this exception, both conditions must be met:

- (1) the subject of the meeting must relate to the security arrangements and emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office; and,
- (2) public disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be expected to jeopardize the security of that public body or public office.
